Does France have a solar energy sector?

The exponential growth of the solar photovoltaic energy sector in France has never stopped since its inception in the early 2000s. In 2022, the PV energy capacity in France amounted to approximately 17 gigawatts, making France the fifth European country for cumulative PV capacity that year.

Are solar panels a good investment in France?

As electricity prices continue to soar in France - up 60% in four years - more people are turning towards solar panel kits, which promise to help users save on energy costs and installation prices. The estimated extra cost of electricity in 2024, compared to 2020, is EUR540 per household per year.

Will France increase its solar capacity by 2035?

By 2035, France aims to increase its cumulative installed solar capacity to between 75-100GW, although this could be a lesser increase compared to neighbouring countries such as Spain and Italy, which are targeting installations of 76GW and 80GW of solar PV by 2030, respectively.

How much insolation does France have?

The insolation in France ranges from 3 sun hours/day in the north to 5 sun hours/day in the south. The output of a solar array is a function of age, temperature, tilt, shading, tracking, and insolation. France is aiming to increase its solar PV capacity from 11.5 GW in March 2021 to 23 GW by the end of 2023.

Is France a good country for solar power?

In 2016, France was ranked 4th in the EU by installed capacity and 14th in terms of PV capacity by inhabitant at 107.3 Wp/Inhab compared to the EU average of 197.8 Wp/Inhab for the year. The country's largest completed solar park to date was the 300 MW Cestas Solar Park.

How do municipalities contribute to the growth of photovoltaics in France?

Municipalities and local governments continue to be active participants in the growth of photovoltaics in France, both investing in projects, experimenting innovative projects (particularly collective self-consumption and the projects to facilitate grid integration), and facilitating citizen investment and grid integration.
