

What is a 'territory' in French energy policy?

The notion of 'territory' has only very recently attracted interest in the French energy policy arena, as attested by the 2014 National Debate about the energy transition and the July 2014 draft law on it.¹ 'Territory', 'local' or 'collectivity' here signify a realm that has a variable perimeter.

Where in France will a battery storage plant be built?

The 35MW/44MWh BESS will be built at the Emile Huchet power plant site in the town of Saint-Avold, in the northeast of the country, and will be one of the largest in France when completed, Q Energy said. The renewable energy IPP arm of PV module manufacturer Qcells has started building one of the largest battery storage projects in France.

Is a French energy policy localism a risk-and-error transcalar process?

The paper bears witness to the emergence of a French energy policy localism. It presents a sample of significant local rural experiences in the climate energy domain in rural France. These experiences are risky, trial-and-error transcalar processes. They amount to a different way of doing energy policy.

Utilities are grappling with infrastructure renewal, cybersecurity, renewable energy integration, climate change impacts, and customer demands, and must innovate to succeed. In this dynamic landscape, Infor Public Sector Suite plays a central role in supporting utility billing operations through its comprehensive digital cloud platform.

SYDNEY, Oct 14 2024 (IPS) - The Pacific Islands region is both the frontline of the wrath that climate change is lashing on the environment and human life and the drive for innovation and solutions to stem the destruction and strengthen island environments for the future. The survival of life, even nations, in the Pacific depends on it. "The world has much to learn from you...

The territories (excluding Antarctica) are managed by the French Southern Territories Reserve, which, as here, monitors the nesting of seabirds. Image : Camille Lin This status is all the more special because the TAAF's are governed by the principle of legislative speciality, meaning that French laws do not apply there unless an exception is made.
