Energy-bending. As a lot of people have already stated, bending energy is pretty much the proto-form of all bending and seeing Korra do it on her own without any guidance from her past selves shows how far she has progressed as an Avatar. Air-bending.

In the Spirit World, you're connected to all the spiritual energy. Raava's dialogue -- "bend the energy within" -- is a direct echo of what the Lion Turtle said to Aang when teaching him energybending. When Korra releases the trapped people, she's bending raw spiritual energy -- the same move she would perform in the finale.

I think the reason the avatar has to use the avatar state to energy bend is because it is a very powerful and spiritual technique, which requires the power from Raava. I think that the part of korra that is Raava serves to stabilise Korra's spirit whilst she is energy bending someone, so that it is not corrupted or destroyed in the process.
