

Will Northvolt AB buy Novo energy?

However, fast forward two years and Volvo has released a statement saying that it has notified Northvolt that it will "invoke its redemption rights to acquire Northvolt's shares in Novo Energy". "This action follows a breach of the parties' shareholders' agreement where Northvolt AB has not fulfilled its financing obligations," the statement said.

What's going on with Volvo Car AB & Northvolt AB?

(Bloomberg) -- Volvo Car AB is taking over a joint venture with financially struggling Northvolt AB to build a factory on Sweden's west coast, underscoring the major challenges of scaling battery production in the electric vehicle market.

Does Northvolt have a pullback in Europe and North America?

Northvolt has in recent weeks communicated a wider pullback across Europe and North America, where the battery maker had hoped to build the manufacturing breadth needed to compete with lower-cost Chinese producers. Those expansion plans are now in tatters amid a string of operational setbacks and cooling demand for electric vehicles in key markets.

Will Northvolt contribute more capital to a joint venture?

Cash-strapped Northvolt said separately that it would not contribute further capital into the joint venture and would instead prioritize its remaining sites in Sweden, as well as the planned factories in Canada and Germany.
