When does Ascent Solar stock start trading on the NASDAQ?

The Company also announced that Ascent Solar's common stock is expected to commence trading on Nasdaq at the opening of the market on Wednesday, August 24, 2022 under the Company's current ticker symbol "ASTI." There is no Shareholder action necessary as a result of the Nasdaq up-listing.

How big is the solar industry in 2023?

By Jenny Chase, Solar, BloombergNEF The photovoltaic industry added about 444 gigawatts of new capacity in 2023, a 76% growth on 2022 build. Prices of solar modules are at record lows, and supply of components is plentiful. End-user markets are booming while manufacturers struggle to make a profit. Installations this year will top 520GW.

Can photovoltaic equipment suppliers sell shovels?

With the photovoltaic cell technology TOPCon and so on entering large-scale mass production, the performance of some photovoltaic equipment suppliers "selling shovels" is like sitting on a rocket, and the distance from the capital market is gradually approaching.

Will the solar market fall in 2023?

End-user markets are booming while manufacturers struggle to make a profit. Installations this year will top 520GW. Yet again, forecasts for solar build have proven too conservative. China alone added 216.9GW (AC) or 268GW (DC) in 2023, 60% of the world market, and we do not expect it to fall.

Why did PV module prices fall in 2022?

After several years of tension on material and transport costs, module prices plummeted in a massively over-supplied market, maintaining the competitiveness of PV even as electricity prices decreased after historical peaks in 2022. Major trends include:
