1976 map of South Keeling Islands. On 23 November 1955, the islands were transferred to Australian control under the Cocos (Keeling) Islands Act 1955 (an Australian Act) pursuant to the Cocos Islands Act, 1955 (a UK Act). Mr H J Hull was appointed the first Official Representative (now Administrator) of the new Territory.

The Cocos (Keeling) Islands (the parentheses are part of the name) issued paper money in 1887, when the two coral atolls were part of the Straits Settlements. These early issues were simply pieces of paper with text printed on them -- they look more like receipts than traditional paper money, but they are often included in banknote lists and collections.
